

Welcome to

Question: What does Shmoop mean?

Answer: Well Smarty Pants, the literal definition is "Moving Things Forward." Translated further, our Shmoop mission is to make learning, writing, and test prep more fun and relevant for students in the digital age. Applying that to your day-to-day classroom existence means that Desert Hills High School STILL has access to the Pandora's Box of test prep content.

Subjects include, but don't stop with...

LITERATURE GUIDES * MYTHOLOGY * BIOLOGY * ALGEBRA *
DIGITAL LITERACY * U.S. HISTORY * CAREER * COLLEGE READINESS *
DMV * ESSAY LAB * MUSIC * CIVICS * ECONOMICS * POETRY
SHAKESPEARE * IF YOU'RE STILL READING THIS YOU HAVE THE BEST EYESIGHT EVER
• ...AND STOP!

Creating a Teacher Classroom

1. Log into your Shmoop account and confirm access to test prep courses.
2. Click on My Profile in the upper right-hand corner.
3. In your My Shmoop page click on the Add Classroom button found on the left-hand side of the page.
4. Name your classroom in a way your students will recognize (Mr. Durham's F Block AP World History, Stewart AP US Gov, Mrs. Juarez B Block).
5. Choose the school and course for the classroom. NOTE: Each classroom can only be assigned one test prep course.
6. Click + Create Classroom and PRESTO! You've created a classroom.

Inviting Students Into Your Classroom

Choose one of the following two methods:

Invite students by email:

1. Send e-mail invites to each of your students, giving them access to your classroom and course materials.

OR

Students join your classroom using your classroom code.

You will need your classroom code and the email address on your Shmoop account. The code is found on your classroom page (5 numbers or letters).

1. Students log in to their Shmoop accounts and click on the Join Classroom button. They will be asked to enter both the classroom code and e-mail address to join the class. You should then receive a request for your student on your classroom page.
